THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF ENVIRONMENT AND FORESTS (SHRI NAMO NARAIN MEENA): (a) No such report has come to light from State Government except some media reports.

(b) The State has been advised to ensure protection for tiger conservation through systemic improvement. Further, the following measures have been taken at the Government of India level to protect wild animals in the country:

(i) Legal protection has been provided to wild animals including tigers against hunting and commercial exploitation under the provisions of the Wildlife (Protection) Act, 1972.

(ii) Financial and technical help is being extended to the States under Centrally Sponsored Schemes for enhancing the capacity and infrastructure to provide effective protection to wild animals.

(iii) The Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) has been empowered under the Wildlife (Protection) Act, 1972 to apprehend and prosecute wildlife offenders.

(iv) The Ministry of Home Affairs has addressed all State Governments to lend a helping hand to the field formations to curb poaching and illegal trade in wildlife.

(v) A National Wildlife Action Plan (2002-2016) has been launched with several action points and priority projects for conservation and protection of wildlife in the country.

Protest rally against Biodiversity Act, 2002

522. DR. AKHILESH DAS: Will the Minister of ENVIRONMENT AND FORESTS be pleased o state:

(a) whether environment and other activists launched a protest rally against the Biodiversity Act, 2002 and the Rules framed there-under, in the Capital near Paryavaran Complex in December, 2004;

(b) if so, the main objections voiced by them indicating the provisions of the law and the rules; and

(c) Government's reaction thereto?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF ENVIRONMENT AND FORESTS (SHRI NAMO NARAIN MEENA): (a) to (c) A few Non-Govemmental Organizations have voiced some concern over not giving enough powers to local Biodiversity Management Committees under the Biological Diversity Act, 2002 and Biological Diversity Rules, 2004. In fact, the Act and the Rules have vested enough powers to the Local Management
